ORDER

BARBARA MOSES, United States Magistrate Judge.

The Court has received and reviewed the parties' confidential settlement letters, submitted in advance of the settlement conference scheduled for May 28, 2025. It is clear from these letters that the parties have not conducted any good-faith settlement discussion, as required by ¶ 2 of my Settlement Conference Scheduling Order (Dkt. 14), and have not exchanged any settlement demands and offers, as required by the same Order.

Consequently, it is hereby ORDERED that the parties promptly conduct the required settlement discussion, during which plaintiff shall convey at least one good-faith demand and defendant shall convey at least one good-faith offer. The discussion may take place through counsel but must be conducted in good faith and in real time (e.g., in person or by telephone). Thereafter, but no later than Tuesday, May 27, 2025, at 10:00 a.m., the parties must submit a joint supplemental settlement letter to chambers (by email, addressed to Moses_NYSDChambers@nysd.uscourts.gov), confirming that they complied with this Order; providing the date and time of their good-faith, real-time discussion; and describing the terms of each party's most recent demand or offer. If the parties do not submit the supplemental letter, or if that letter reveals that they have not scrupulously complied with the Settlement Conference Scheduling Order, the conference will be taken off calendar.

SO ORDERED.
